MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY OF THE DAY

To Sheep-farmers and the Public in general.

F. C. Calvert's Phenyline & Terebane.

The great reputation these specifics have enjoyed in England on account of their extraordinary success in all cases where they have been applied, has induced the proprietor to introduce them in this market on account of the immense sheep farming interest of the country. To enable sheep-owners to obviate in future the enormous losses they sustain yearly, not only in the cankers etc.

Cows; distemper, an full diseases of the hoofs.

The wounds or bruises resulting from accident and for all general Veterinary purposes these remedies are sure. Every line is found to be remarkably successful in the Hospitals in England for curing Contract. Turebene is also used for pulverising blisters, skins and bones from sheep, wounds and insects, the parcels already cured with it in this city and Australia, have received the approval of purchasers in England who report them to be perfectly sound and sweet. The leather worked from the hides is also declared to be superior in every respect.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

The Prince and Princess of Wales assisted at the commemorative festivals at Oxford. The crowd assembled was so great that the barriers were all broken down, and the greatest confusion created. Fashionable young ladies and city swells were crushed into each other's arms. Hats, bonnets, parasols, and walking canes were flying in every direction.

A great sham fight is to come off at Woolwich, at which the Prince and Princess will attend.

A troupe of New Zealanders have been paying their respects to their Royal Highnesses. The Princess created great amused at these extraordinary natives.

Mr. Barbour, the new member for Lisburn, has been unseated for bribery. Mr. Ll. will be inaugurated next week.

In the House of Lords the Duke of Somerset stated, in reply to a question, that the control of the Indian navy had been transferred to the Admiralty, but the Governor-General had power to order it to be employed on active service. The Duke of Richmond alluded to the proposal to purchase for the nation the International Exhibition Building and site, and complained that the erection was inadequate for the purpose in view, and that the price was extravagant. Earl Granville expressed his opinion that the noble duke had underrated the value of the premises. In answer to a question by Lord Derby, Earl Granville explained that of the purchase money for the site, £120,000, only 67,000 had been voted, the remainder would be asked for next year.

In the House of Commons, Mr Cave asked questions respecting an international conference which, according to the 'Moniteur,' has been opened in Paris to examine into the project of a telegraphic line between Europe and America, via Brazil and the West. Mr. Layard replied that the conference had been held, but her Majesty's Government had taken no part in it. In answer to a question by Mr Liddell, Mr Layard stated that some disturbance had taken place at Corfu, and that upon four British subjects, one of whom was killed and two wounded. Her Majesty's Government had demanded from the Greek Government apology, the execution of the offenders, and compensation for the family of the murdered man. In reply to Mr Whitbread, it was stated that Mr Pritchard, the English Consul at the Feejeeislands, had been discharged for drawing bills beyond the requirements of his office. Having moved that the house should go into committee of supply, Lord Enfield called attention to vote 267, on account of the purchase money for the land on which the International Exhibition Building stands. Mr Gregory opposed the vote, but after a discussion it was agreed to by 267 votes against 184. The votes for the building and repairs were postponed.

The Valentine case will take place before the House of Lords immediately. Major Yelverton appeals from the decision of the Court of Session, which gave a high affirmed the Scotch marriage.

The contest between the champion oarsmen of England and Australia took place on the Thames, and resulted in the triumph of the representative of the mother country. The struggle was for the championship of the world.

The Fenian whom has recently led many thousands of Irishmen to emigrate to the United States, has arrived in Dublin from Cork.

Farmers are crying out that they have had plenty of rain, and now desire a little dry, sunny weather. Wheat is of fine quality and promises to yield well: in full ear—and more will be cut at present operate de ring will open it. The potato crop excellent and most abundant.

Mr Farnall officially reports that the number of persons relieved on the 9th instant, there was a decrease of 618 in the number of persons receiving relief in the districts under his inspection.

The Pays contradicts in the following terms the report circulated by the Opinion Nationale that there was spoken of a marriage as in contemplation between the new King of the Greeks and one of the young daughters of the Queen of England. There has never been any thought of such a marriage. The children of the King are to be brought up in the religion of the country. The personal feelings of Queen Victoria and the habits and sentiments of the English people would be alike opposed to a project which would necessitate the education of the Queen's grandchild in a foreign religion."—Queen Sponsors, the Journal des Debats continues, will accompany the King to his new home and remain with him as his confidential adviser

The Moniteur quietly having triumphed at the elections in Belgium, the King, according to communications from Brussels, will form a new Ministry, and call to it Clerical-Unionist politicians, as some journals assert

A commercial treaty between France and Holland has been effected, and the ratifications will be exchanged.

The termination of the election in the sixth district of Paris in favour of the opposition candidate has occasioned the defeat of the Government in its capital.

Matters appear to be in a very quiescent state in Peru, a reaction having taken place upon the celebration of the Mexican victory having commenced. No change has taken place in the Ministry, and, according to private advices, the President of Persigny holds his portfolio only in consequence of the statesmen of France being willing to accept the political jokes there.

The Danish seaboard is threatened with a blockade by Prussia and the German Confederation, arising out of the international dispute as to the Seaway Holstein. The Danes are preparing for defence, and England, who has a treaty right to maintain the integrity of Denmark, will allow that right to be violated, but will assist the Britishkingdom, to which she is now bound by the strongest domestic and political ties.

Fuad Pasha has been chosen Grand Vizier of the Ottoman Empire. He will be Minister of War for a month and have the supervision of Finance.

A Maori, named Duff, has committed a triple murder upon his companions on board the schooner Rakaihoua, New a steamer from Lyttelton to carry away their wood. The murderer has been executed.

A discovery has been made of an infamous attempt to commence mutiny on the South Sea Islands, by a band of Spaniards, Italians, and Spanish of 200 unsuspecting natives were invegled on board, when the ships set sail to carry the poor wretches into slavery. Those who were unwilling found too young or infirm were coolly thrown into the sea. The French authorities have captured three of the chief crews, who will be brought to richly merited punishment.

The French journals say that the Government of England has received information from England for alleged illtreatment of Captain Cordier, of the Havre ship Leopard, by the English cruiser Orestes.

Several very severe shocks of earthquake have been felt throughout the department of Var. Much damage has been done to the churches and public buildings, and immense blocks of granite were shaken down from the hills. The inhabitants of Nice and those in that part of the continent are but seldom felt, the consternation of the inhabitants was great. Many people have said they all spent the night in the streets.

The nobility of Spain, in the absence of more advantageous and congenial subjects for conversation, have within the last few days been amusing themselves at a bull fight, in the presence of the Queen and Court. Two bulls were brought in and allowed in the arena; it was, however, not only a brutal but a cowardly exhibition, for the animals were previously deprived of their natural resort by starvation and the use of drugs. The weather in Spain is intensely cold, and all the sustenance in the north are still covered with snow.

There has been a fearful accident at Valencia. The roof of a school fell in, crushing 50 boys. Six of whom were killed on the spot; many of the remainder are fearfully mutilated. The vile district of Spain have been visited by a most destructive hurricane, and great damage has been sustained.

The Paris' has an article progno-sticating that the approaching harvests in Italy and in the Crimea will appear insignificant compared with what will be Europe before Warsaw.

At Aachen, late Austrian consul at Paris, charged with four others with attempting to bring the French Government into contempt and contempt, has been acquitted.

It is rumoured that through English influence the Suez Canal scheme is likely to collapse. M. de Lesseps is returned to Paris.

An official return of the exports and imports of France during four months has been published, from which it appears that, compared with the corresponding period of 1867, the increase in the exports has amounted to 113 million francs, and in the imports to 20 millions sterling. The imports however were much less than in 1861, and the diminution is said to arrise chiefly from the cotton crisis and the plentiful harvest of last year.

A telegraphic despatch anticipating the possibility of war with Russia caused a fall in the Paris Bourse, and a great excitement on Thursday on the Paris bourse.

The 'Papa,' the organ of the French Ecclesiastics, affirms that the truth of the report of a military convention between France and Italy for the better suppression of brigandage in the latter country "for any military convention, new arrangements, or new instructions." The Emperor is now engaging through the journal printing pro a Life of Cæsar, in three volumes.

On Friday week, his Excellency Baron Gros, Ambassador of France, and his Excellency Baron Brunnow, Ambassador of Russia, and his Excellency M. de Bille, Minister of Denmark, signed the protocol of the new accession to the crown of Greece by his Royal Highness Prince William of Denmark. Earl Russell, as Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, had the honour to assist at the attestation of the state document.

The Greek deputation had an audience of the King of Denmark on Saturday, when his Majesty formally announced the acceptance by Prince William of the throne of Greece. The King afterwards entertained the deputation at a banquet, and proposed "The health of King George of Greece." His Majesty said he had always sought happiness by the path of duty, and he felt confident the new Greek King to do likewise. The latter promised to faithfully obey this sage advice.

The King of the Greeks is at once to be proclaimed of age. In addition to £46,000 civil list guaranteed by this country, £9,000 per annum arising from the revenue of the Ionian islands will be continued if the King retires into private life. The royal domain of Corfu contributes a further sum of £9,000 a year.

LATEST FROM THE INTERIOR.

ARRIVAL OF THE PAVON

We have received our exchanges from the Interior.

The 'Litoral,' of Parana, is again going ahead, attacking the National Government, and Sarmiento and Sandes: but there is no news in its columns about the actual state of trade in Parana or in any part of Entre Rios. We hope Sr Carrigo will now, that we have peace, apply his talents to the cotton question, and work an industrial revolution up amongst the inhabitants of Parana

The 'Zonda' from San Juan, is begun to exchange with us. The province is filled with government despatches. Sarmiento's reply to Dr Rawson, toasts Dr Elizalde's despatches to Sr Lamas hollow. There is one reasoning point, however, in San Juan, the mining industry is rapidly on the increase. A fellow-countryman, Mr George Crawford, is the Secretary of the San Juan Mining Company, for which company Mr Rickard is now shipping the machinery from Europe. The company is doing rather a good business, and great expectations are entertained of the Rickard colony, which is expected out in a few months. The readers of 'La Zonda' are so eternally presented with essays on Blackstone and Kent, which some say emanate from the pen of the governor, that President Mitre will shortly discover the whole reading population at his feet.

All the members of congress and national executive put together. A fine little tiller, by the by, is Sarmiento's damn Elizal's theory of international law, and asserts that the capture of the Salto was illegal, according to Sarmiento's edition of Vattel

The 'Perro-Cerril,' gives the latest from Paraguay. The resignation has been at last laid before the legislature, and it has been sent to a committee.

Consul Hutchinson has presented to Mr Perkins one barrel of cotton seed for Catamarca, which Mr Perkins has promised to forward without delay. From Catamarca we read that there is great interest taken in the cultivation of cotton, and that the people intend to give crop in that province, but owing to the cheapness of American cotton this completely fallen away. The freight from Catamarca to Cordova is so low, being six or seven silver dollars per bale of cotton, which is two thirds of the crop, being so heavy, owing to the want of gins, obliged to be sent to Cordova. Considerable interest is said to annihilate the cotton growing in Catamarca. But now there is a universal rage throughout this province, as in every other one in Argentina, for cottou, and even seed has become scarce. The cheese of Valle Viejo, Catamarca, Mr Fernandez, is rather superior to anything adapted to the growth of cotton. We without seed. Owing to the late Cholera epidemic, several factories boards have almost failed, the house of Molino, one of the strongest that was in the province, is almost ruined.

Samuel Molino, former governor, is obliged to fly, as he has been set upon as a mashorquero.

Peace in all Catamarca sake, and plenty of cotton seed

THE MONTEVIDEAN LOAN

On Monday the propositions or bids for the new loan were unsealed by the Minister. There were seven bids.

1. The Commercial Bank. 2,000,000 dollars, in the domestic debt. at 49 per cent of its par value.

2. Don Maximo Gurmendez, for 20,000 hard dollars in same, at 35 per cent

3. Don Enrique Platero, for 70,000 hard dollars, in same, at 49 1/4 per cent

4. Don Jose Maria Penalva, for 40,000 hard dollars in same, at 37 per cent

5. The same, for 32,000 hard dollars at 38 per cent in domestic debt

6. Sres Lavalle and Cottolengo for 50,000 hard dollars in the same, at 34 per cent

7. Sres Maua and Co, for 250,000 hard dollars, in the same, or for whatever balance may remain untaken at the 1st August.

This last bid was accompanied with a letter from the Baron to the Minister of Hacienda in which he stated that he sent the bid sent in by the Manager of the Bank was accepted. it was his desire to regard it as merely provisional, leaving the latter time to make necessary measures to raise the necessary funds on more favorable terms, in which event the loan can be redeemed by the Bank with the funds the same advanced with interest

This note of the Baron's bears a striking resemblance to the assertion of the Nacional, the other day, and reflects the greatest praise on the Baron, and honor to the credit of the Bank, which is a further indisputable proof, that the multifarious loans offered and raised in Buenos Ayres, on such compliment has ever been paid to the Bank or Ministers.

Montevideo. It is general opinion that the Government will accept the Baron's noble and generous offer.

The Montevideo Government deserves the warmest praise for the straightforward and honorable manner in which it comes forward to meet the pressing necessity funds to extinguish the revolution. Our own Government would do well to profit by the example in Montevideo shown of the payment of business and each like; but money, when wanted, is asked for in a plain, business-like manner, and we are happy to say is always obtained.

The biddings for the loan at 40 is equivalent to par, when the difference between that interest the bonds bear and the rate of money in the market, is taken into account.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The oldest business at present is the Argentine Campenaly Colony. The 'Tribuna' opposes the concession of a few square leagues of land to hunting ground, upon the plea that these Wolsamen are the most ambitious set of emigrants, and consequently least desirable for the Argentine Republic. Foster says that this is all 'bosh'—that Varela's objection is that if the colony is established the 'Standard' will have greater circulation than the 'Tribuna.'

The 'Nacional' has fall at once hauled down its colours, and now warmly advocates foreigners, and invites them to come out to the River Plate with their energy and their ideas. This weathercock colleague only the other day argued that foreigners' ideas were worthless, and undeserving of attention. We are glad to see the evening adversary has changed its views. We are creditably informed that 22 members of the 'Nacional' were sent to Europe by the packet. What an effect it will have in Europe!

Our readers will learn with pleasure that the whole of Congress House is to be pulled down, and Parliament, who, we are told, is a sensible about to superintend the reconstruction of the unlucky building, at present a fortune's prospect, that it gave way so soon; another six months and perhaps the representatives of the country mi ht have got squeezed.

Considerable anxiety is felt as to respecting a new law when he come in force in France with regard to foreign newspapers and their contributors. The correspondent holds are sterable, not only for what he writes, but also for everything which appears in the paper to which he belongs.

Another frightful murder has occurred in the city. A young man was assassinated on Monday night in Calle Tucuman. It is supposed the he was murdered by a man with whom he was playing billiards, as they were seen together. The police in this city are decidedly the most useless set of employees in the country. Murders take place, we regret to say, but frequently, and the murderer almost invariably escapes.

Owing to a great 'scene' in the south the difficulties to Dolores have been stopped, and mercantile and estancieros who have letters to send are obliged to pay exorbitant prices for chasques. It is to be hoped immediate to think that coaches are all taken off the roads on account of the starvation of the horses, owing to the inactivity of trade, as also of mules are rotting and going to waste in the chacras.

We perceive that Mr Frank Parish, late Consular Secretary here, is about to come to terms, all the pending demands have been amicably settled. To-morrow we shall publish full particulars of the arrangement, not only of the English but all other foreign claims. The amount of all the foreign claims is $9,971,1-6ths, one, which is to be paid in 67 bonds

The opera will come off to-night in Colon—'Ballo de Maschera.' We hope we may go and hear it.

The defeat of Flores at Tacuarembo was confirmed yesterday, we are happy to say, by the steamer from Montevideo.

THE CHILIAN MAILS.

We have the Parro-cerril of Santiago to the 1st instant. For a wonder it brings us intelligence of the fall of Puebla, as we were prepared for an official contradiction, from some Mexican dignitary, of the French triumph. Admiral Panzo's advice, about commotions for Mexico, is borequent, and the Chilian patriots had better button up their pockets.

A new French weekly paper is published in Valparaiso: its name is 'Trait d'Union.'

The railway from Santiago to Valparaiso (40 leagues) is at last finished. The first train has arrived in the capital on the 1st July, after a rapid trip of four hours. The Anglo Chilian question is as an end. Chambers have paid dearly for their folly in the extravagant claims of Capt a White head, who is a native of Chile, although he has served in the Government has taken him under protection.

We learn that General Rogahna and several other officers concerned in the late revolt, rather than fall into the hands of the French. General Orega has been sent captive to France.

A museum an American club has been formed, and 8,000 dollars collected. The total of contributions from Chile amounts to 25 000 dollars. The Intendente of Santiago has also collected 13½ dollars to be spent in police with woollen drawers and knockers.

On the feast of St. John a grand High Mass, followed by a dejeuner took place on board the Irlanda, a British man-of-war visiting at present on Spanish hospitality. Admiral Pinto was absent; there are grave complaints about the philippics on South American republics. The dinners, recently, he expressed himself so freely that all the ladies left the table.

The Chilian navy is kept up by British cooks, came off at Valparaiso on 27th ult.; the race was 3 miles long, with 14 logs.

The Mejillones guano question is before the Chambers.

Mr. Benjamin V. Mackenna is indicted for libel by D. Manuel Hilmar; is going to be a curious affair.

The municipality of Santiago has rescued the citizens from exorbitant commanders by fixing the following prices:—For one horse, 10 cents, or by the person) for one fare, 10 cents, or by the hour 60 cents. It is desirable the same were enforced in Buenos Ayres.

A new floating dock is projected at Valparaiso, 200 feet by 60; it is to be finished by December. The quarrel between the Chilian and Peruvian Governor of Magellanes was a fabrication, they parted, as they had met, excellent friends. The Peruvians are performing legerdemain tricks at Valparaiso, and the Belaeve family—Americans—play on the tight-rope. On the 17th ult. the Chilian officers of the Resolucion gave a banquet to 60 persons. Mr. Wheelwright's railway—Copiapo—is quoted at 45 per cent premium; other stocks in minor ratio

BOLIVIA.

War with Chile.

The Bolivian Chargé has at length received the despatches announcing the actual state of affairs between Chile. Several citizens of the latter republic have been feazed and arbitrarily detained. The editor of the Mayna was arrested for saying that Cobija belonged to Chile

VENEZUELA

The revolution is over. General Paez has surrendered at discretion to the national President, Monagas, though deserted by his party, will not give in. The war in San Salvador is at a standstill

PERU

Tranquility prevails in every part of the republic, and a general amnesty has been granted to offenders in a spirit of. Sr M. Ignacio Vivanco being sent as plenipotentiary to Chile was received. in great state, by the President, when the warmest expressions of friendship were interchanged. The Spanish fleet was expected to visit Callao in this month. The French authorities at Tahiti had seized 4 Peruvian brigs for stealing the islanders, to enslave them: the vessels were confiscated and sold

SAN DOMINGO

Four revolutionary chiefs have been condemned to death. Part of the Spanish garrison has left for Porto Rico. General Santana is busy fomenting the works of salt-petre and gold veins. It is proposed to erect a statue to the Catholic Majesty in the capital of the republic.

THE FLORES' FIASCO.

Several false rumours. Lamas was said to have beaten Flores, and driven him towards Las Palmas. Also that a commanding was found in the interior, by neither armies having artillery. Letters from Miraples of the 25th inst., place Lamas and the rebel forces within a few leagues of it. The former in Cerro Chato, the latter in Isla Pelada. An engagement was hourly expected. Colonel Quinteros had set out with a cavalry force to make a diversion

LOCAL EVENTS

BOLSILLA ENCANTADA.—Our readers will recollect the story of the frightful a blunder in the name of the man who lost the pocket book the other night, in the Colon, as it does of the robbery of the pocket-book which came to spoil Vicksburg without a war. the owner of the pocket-book is Mr A Craig, and not Mr A Campbell—and the money lost did not amount to even one-half the sum mentioned in the 'Tribuna.'

THE LATE ACCIDENT.—A certain well-known broker has cleared 'a million' by the late 'slide'

NEW RAILWAY.—We hear, with sincere pleasure, that a leading English house of Montevideo has proposed to make a railway from Montevideo to Higueritas, and that the government is most favourably disposed towards the enterprise. Now that Flores is done up, and the country is in half an hour, we do have railways. The wheels of the engine is the deadliest enemy the revolutionary gaucho and his friends have.

THE WELSH COLONY.—The 'Tribuna' opposes this colony, pleading the poverty of the Welsh. Taken in the abstract I am all the Welshman in Wales would at once induce England to covet a square inch of Argentine territory. But as proof to the contrary, without seeking a lot of Patagonian salt-banks. Far wiser for our colleague to keep a sharp look out upon the Welsh 'Times' en masse. Mr Rickard's Welsh colony in San Juan is a far more dangerous affair

BAD TIMES.—The best business now a day is drinking, owing to the number of new houses being opened. Bottle Alley sides are kept day and night burning

COTTON PLANTING.—We learn the reason why the Government has not yet taken up the cotton-planting enterprise is, that the Campanely affair is so firmly set before Sr Varela's eyes that he dare not move in it. Should we export 100 bales of cotton, we shall most certainly get into a war with France, or England, or Turkey, or Timbuctoo, or Japan, as thus European Powers take care of themselves

NEW CONGRESS HOUSE.—It is pleasing to be enabled to state that those who have inspected the buildings, that it would be unsafe to continue use edifice upon the present foundations. Time will show the Government, General Mitre, and begin anew

DOGBERRY.—This is the new 'sobriquet' for this fair boy. Another very interesting case has come before his Lordship. One of our readers has promised to send us the particulars

A WAGER.—How much will the 'Tribuna' bet, that the new Congress House will not be brought in, as proposed?

A WAGER.—How much will the 'Tribuna' bet, that the new Congress House will not be brought in, as proposed?

Unfortunately the rate of interest of the Naus Bank is incorrectly stated. It would appear from the advertisement that this bank gives 15 per cent and charges 16 per cent, the rate being exactly the reverse. The bill stands 14 and charges 15 per cent, both on paper and gold; possibly the immense purchase of business of the bank may be attributed to our unintentional blunder

The state of our money market at present is anything but settled. On Change, to-day, the loan of half a million sterling taken by Mauá in Montevideo, gave rise to the impression that there would be another rise on ounces before long. We of course can offer no opinion whatever in the matter, but only give the rumour for what it is worth. The loan of Montevideon loan is a very heavy business for the River Plate, and probably the largest ever negotiated in those countries.

There prevailed a rumour on the Bolsa about three o'clock to the effect that there had been a telegram sent in Congress to-day on the national debt question—that Senr. Quintana had pressed the Ministry very hard, and that Dr. Barrabino stated the impossibility of a national bankruptcy. It was also rumoured that Dr. Sarsfield purposed resigning, and that Senr. Gorostiaga would be his successor.

The total amount of the emancipation on Saturday will be 1740 patacones, 40,000 dollars for interest.

The Pavon arrived this morning, bringing 272 ounces, 2245 Polivianos, and $74,296 m/c. besides a number of the Lanchas presented at more importance than the specie.

The Addison, from New York, has arrived, with a valuable cargo.

The arrivals eastwise are very heavy, in maize, dry hides, potatoes and bones.
